

David Metzger

Born 1969, Swiss and French citizen

David Metzger currently serves as Managing Director Investments of Witel AG, a company that provides consulting, investment and portfolio management advisory services to a range of international companies. From 2011 until 2018, David Metzger worked for the Renova Group, first as CFO of Venetos Management AG, subsequently as Deputy Managing Director Mergers & Acquisitions and Strategic Development of Renova Management AG, and ultimately as Managing Director Investments. Prior to this, David Metzger worked for Good Energies AG (part of COFRA Holding, Switzerland), a highly renowned renewable-energy fund, where he was an investment executive, and also served as CFO and Board member of several portfolio companies. Before Good Energies, David Metzger was a Senior Manager at Bain & Company, focusing on strategy and private equity. Besides his executive positions, he has at present one other non-executive appointment as a Board Member of Italy-based Octo Telematics. David Metzger holds a Master's degree in Business Economics from the University of Zurich (Switzerland) and an MBA from INSEAD (Fontainebleau, France).